PREMATURITY PREVENTION CONFERENCE 2015

Quality Improvement, Evidence and Practice

SAVE THE DATE

November 17 and 18, 2015

Crystal Gateway Marriott | Arlington, Virginia

The conference will examine ways to enhance prematurity prevention efforts in the United States by sharing best practices for designing, implementing and evaluating programs and policies. This will be a forum for disseminating findings, sharing tools and resources, and engaging stakeholders in the effort to significantly reduce the U.S. preterm birth rate by 2030.

The conference brings together a multidisciplinary group to discuss quality improvement in the strategy to prevent prematurity, promote health and save costs.

Organized by the March of Dimes in collaboration with the Centers for Disease Control & Prevention (CDC), American Academy of Family Physicians, American Academy of Pediatrics, American College of Nurse-Midwives, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, Association of Maternal & Child Health Programs, Association of State and Territorial Health Officials, Association of Women's Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses and National Association of County & City Health Officials.
