Thank you for interest in organizing a fundraiser or event to benefit March of Dimes ("MOD"), the leading advocate for the health of mothers, their babies, and their families. As you may imagine, our staff and other team members are fully engaged with our mission advancement, research and development, policy, and other initiatives, and we are not able to provide staff support for "do-it-yourself" ("DIY") events. For that reason, we greatly appreciate the individuals and organizations interested in organizing or sponsoring DIY events on behalf of March of Dimes and our work for healthy moms and strong babies.

To assist with DIY campaigns, we have partnered with OneCause to offer this platform to persons such as yourself (as the "Fundraiser"). If you use the OneCause platform for any reason, or otherwise organize a DIY event for MOD, you agree to abide by both (a) the following rules (the “Rules”) and (b) MOD’s Privacy Policy.

Do-it-Yourself Campaigns/Fundraisers

As referenced in these Rules, a DIY campaign is an event or promotion organized, sponsored, publicized, and carried-out by a person or entity (the “Fundraiser” or “you”) who is not affiliated with March of Dimes, for the purpose of raising money or awareness of March of Dimes’ mission, and where March of Dimes has little or no staff involvement and has no fiduciary responsibility for the event.

The proceeds of all DIY fundraisers are to be delivered to MOD. Donations made through the OneCause platform will be transmitted to MOD. In addition, if Fundraiser receives any funds outside of the OneCause platform, Fundraiser agrees to convert those donations to an online donation made through the OneCause site or submit the funds using the March of Dimes DIY Offline Donation Form. If you wish to donate in-kind services or goods, please contact March of Dimes at 1.888.663.4637 or diy@marchofdimes.org for further guidance.

Subject to the Fundraiser’s acceptance of (and compliance with) these Rules, MOD agrees to allow the Fundraiser to use this fundraising platform and the MOD name and “To Benefit March of Dimes logo” (as provided below).

For the Benefit of March of Dimes

As mentioned above, a DIY event is one in which MOD has little or no staff involvement. As such, Fundraiser agrees to identify MOD as the beneficiary of a DIY fundraiser. Any promotional materials (whether physical, online, or other communications) should not state or suggest either that the Fundraiser is acting on behalf of March of Dimes (as an employee, agent, or otherwise) or that the event is sponsored, publicized, organized, or carried-out by March of Dimes. For example, if you were to host a bowl-a-thon, the DIY event should be identified as "A Bowl-a-Thon to Benefit March of Dimes," rather than as "the MOD Bowl-a-Thon".

Trademark Usage

Subject to your compliance with these Rules, MOD grants Fundraiser a non-exclusive, non-transferable permission to use and display the MOD name and “To Benefit March of Dimes logo” provided here in connection with DIY events, subject to the following terms and conditions:

Conduct & Decorum

While planning your event, please remember the following:

• As a leading advocate for the health of mothers, their babies, and their families, it is MOD’s policy to exercise restraint in any promotions involving alcohol and to provide safeguards and limitations on when and in what manner alcoholic beverages are provided. March of Dimes’ logo may not appear on event materials that also bear the logo of an alcoholic beverage company, per unit sold donation promotions from an alcohol company, bar, or restaurant, as they may be understood to encourage excessive alcohol consumption.

• As a public charity, March of Dimes cannot support or oppose political candidates. It is essential that we avoid any appearance of political endorsements. Therefore, we ask that no person currently campaigning for office and no sitting politicians attending an event engage in any political activity or campaigning.

• Each DIY event should be administered in a manner that reflects positively on the image of MOD.

• If you decide to participate or donate to March of Dimes, you agree to March of Dimes’ Privacy Policy and Terms of Use.

• When using March of Dimes name, you agree that you will not use the name of March of Dimes in any way that would demean, defame, embarrass, diminish or cause any harm to

Promotions

You are not permitted to offer any contest, competition giveaway, raffle, sweepstakes or similar activity (each, a "Promotion") without March of Dimes’ prior written consent.

Cause Related Marketing & Product Endorsement

A “Commercial Co-Venture Promotion” is any promotion or fundraising effort by which a commercial entity wishes to fundraise for March of Dimes by selling a product or service, for which MOD will receive a portion of proceeds based on the amount sold. Fundraiser agrees that it will not engage in any Commercial Co-Venture Promotion on behalf of MOD without prior written approval and adoption of any appropriate documents that may be required to comply with the various laws and regulations related to such Commercial Co-Venture Promotions. Fundraiser may not use the MOD name or the MOD Logo in connection with the sale or promotion of any products or services or for any commercial purposes unless pre-authorized by MOD in writing. Fundraiser will not represent or imply that MOD endorses or sanctions any product or service of Fundraiser or of any third party.
